

OFFICIAL

Board Engagement & Governance

Positive and visible Board level support for, and engagement with, protective security is vital to demonstrate to staff the value placed on security and the insider threat strategy.

- A Board member should have overall responsibility for protective security. They should be regularly engaged with key stakeholders from the insider threat programme and have a firm understanding of the risks the organisation faces.
- A non-Executive Director should act as an independent champion for personnel security matters and the insider threat programme.

Existing Products

Beginners

Passport to Good Security

Protective Security Management Systems \(PSeMS\)

Leadership & Governance videos - key messages

HoMER Executive Summary

Security Professionals

HoMER - Holistic Management of Employee Risk

Personnel Security Maturity Model

Protective Security Management Systems \(PSeMS\)

5 E's to Behaviour Change

NCSC Cyber Security Toolkit for Boards

Insider Case Collection Study

SeCuRE - Management Level Survey

Secure Business

ACET - Asset Cost Estimation Tool: For access, please contact us via our enquiries form.